NOVEMBER 2, 2017

Dear Aspen Crossing Community,

I always find myself taking time to reflect on all that I am thankful for during November each year. I would like to share some of my reflections with you this month:

Thank you for being such an amazing community and welcoming me with open arms into our school.

Thank you to our Veterans and active military service members who work tirelessly to support us each day.

Thank you to our staff for being so wonderful and working diligently each day for our students.

Thank you to our PTCO for supporting our school and planning community events for us to take time and enjoy each other's company.

Thank you to our staff and community members who offer extracurricular opportunities for our students to pursue throughout the year.

Thank you to our amazing Before and After Care staff who provide wonderful and fun activities for our students.

Thank you to our Preschool staff who collaborate with our school throughout the year.

Thank you to our parents for sharing your children with us and partnering with us throughout the year.

Thank you to our students for bringing the enthusiasm into our building each day!

Thank you, Aspen Crossing Community! You are truly the best community and I feel so very fortunate to have the opportunity to work alongside each of you every day.

Your partner in education,

Karen Puga

Our parade will begin at 1:00 pm followed by a special ceremony to honor our military at Sky Vista Middle School. We hope to see many of our grandparents and families lining our parade route. A map of the route will be sent home again in Thursday Folders.

Here is the parade route for this year:

First ACE Storytelling Night – Nov. 29th

To complement our Taste of Ace, we would love to learn more about our families and their traditions through storytelling. We hope you are able to join us for the first storytelling night on Nov. 29th from 6 – 7 pm in the gym. We will have 2 staff and 2 families sharing their stories for this evening. Light snacks will be served following the stories. More information will be coming soon.

Environmental Tip – November

Reduce the amount of food that you throw away. Most people don't realize how much food they throw away every day — from uneaten leftovers to spoiled produce (fruits and vegetables). About 95 percent of the food we throw away ends up in landfills or combustion facilities. In 2014, we disposed of more than 38 million tons of food waste. Try freezing foods like bread, meat, fruits, and vegetables when your family has a lot so it doesn't go to waste.

Safety Corner Reminders –

· Please remember to help your children remember to cross the street at our designated crosswalks. We have staff there each day at arrival and dismissal times to ensure safety.

Thank you for driving slowly and carefully in our school zone to ensure everyone's safety.

Beyond Mama Bear

How to Survive the Balancing Act of Parenting Teenagers

Tuesday, November 7th, 9:15 – 11:15 a.m.

Wednesday, November 15th, 7:00 – 8:30 p.m.

Is your adolescent rushing in on you like a high tide?

Come learn how you can be the safe harbor, a lighthouse, a beacon, the safety of home and shore.

Is your teenager driving you crazy?

Don't take it personally. Discover the signs of trouble and understand when they might need help!

There is hope for frazzled families! Join Lisa Lane Filholm, a high school teacher (and parent) who has seen it all, at the next PIN presentation for some some frank, funny, practical advice for staying vigilant during these topsy-turvy years.

Lisa will share how the role of parenting must change from “mama bear,” when our kids are cubs, to a peregrine falcon (to watch them), a ninja (to disarm them), a personal trainer (to work them), and a mentor (to guide them) as they become teenagers. Parents who know, protect and honor their teenagers can find balance for the whole family.

Parents, school administrators and community members are welcome and encouraged to attend PIN's presentations. No need to RSVP! Presentations are FREE and are held the first Tuesday of each month at:
